

COMBATANTS MAKE WAR PREPARATIONS

Balkan Allies and Turks Make Active Plans to Resume Hostilities

ARE LEAVING LONDON

Nothing Can Stop Re-opening of War Except Surrender of Ad- rianople and Aegean Islands

SECOND WAR MAY BE SHORT

LONDON, JAN. 31.—The Balkan allies and the Turks are making active preparations to resume hostilities in southeastern Europe.

The delegates of the allies to the peace conference here are saying farewell and packing their baggage preparatory to departing from London. A news agency despatch received here today from Constantinople reported that the Turkish delegates had been ordered home, but the command has not yet been received here. It seems that only the good offices of the powers can avert a further resort to arms, but thus far these apparently have failed.

Even at this late hour each side of the dispute is accusing the other of bluffing. The Turks declare that in their note to the powers Thursday the allies were given genuine concessions as a basis for resuming the peace negotiations, but they had expected to make them at the commencement of the peace negotiations.

The allies practically admit this but say that what would have been acceptable even a fortnight ago cannot now be entertained and that the Turkish game obviously is to lead them by the nose for months, counting on the allies' financial exhaustion and hoping that complications will arise to favor Turkey.

Balkan Nations Excited.

Dr. Daneff, head of the Bulgarian delegation, said today that the feelings of the Balkan populations must be considered.

Excitement among them, he declared, had reached the highest degree against their "fraudulent treatment" by a handful of young Turk conspirators who had attempted to play with the decision of Europe and the honor, prestige and lives of the Balkan peoples.

A comparison between the Vatican and the Mussulman's holy Shrines in Adrianople, Dr. Daneff said, was inadmissible. The Italians, he declared, made concessions to the papacy after they had taken possession of Rome. In case Adrianople was quashed, who would try to impose conditions? he asked.

In addition, Dr. Daneff said, the Vatican was the residence of the apostles and contained the tombs of apostles and former popes, while Adrianople, with the exception of its mosques, had nothing absolutely vital to the Mussulman people. Dr. Daneff repeated that nothing could stop a re-opening of the war except the unconditional surrender of Adrianople and the Aegean Islands.

Leave London.

The Serbian delegates today bade farewell to Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign minister. Stojan Novakovich, head of the delegation, told Sir Edward that he considered a renewal of the war inevitable as the Bulgarians would not be satisfied with anything short of the surrender of Adrianople.

M. Novakovich said to the Associated Press that he did not believe any interference with the allies was possible.

"This time," he added, "the preliminaries to peace together with a new armistice will be signed after the fall of Adrianople and on a drumhead in the battlefield. The conditions of peace will comprise not only a new Thracian frontier line but the contemporaneous surrender of Sentari and Janina to Montenegro and Greece and also a war indemnity.

"I do not believe that I shall return to London for the drafting and signing of a definite treaty which can be done more easily at Sofia or Constantinople. However, each of the allies' delegations is leaving one of its members here in order to keep in touch with the ambassadorial conference and give the ambassadors any necessary explanation regarding questions under discussion by them."

M. Venizelos, the Greek premier, in bidding farewell to friends today said he hoped soon to return to London for a definite conclusion of peace as the second period of war would be short.

The exchange of communications between the representatives of the powers was active today but thus far it seems that no practical way has been found to avert a resumption of the hostilities.

ATTEMPTS TO AMEND WORKS BILL DEFEATED

Senate Votes Down Every Amendment to Single Six Year Term

MAY TAKE FINAL VOTE

Resolution Makes Ineligible to Retraction any Former Pres- ident—Final Vote Today?

"AIMED AT ROOSEVELT"—CLAIM

FRIDAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate.
Convened at noon.
Debate on Works' single six year presidential term resolution was resumed.

House.
Convened at noon.
Resumed debate on District of Columbia appropriation bill.

The free list was subject of ways and means committee's tariff revision hearing.

Appeal was made by women to congressional elections committee for passage of bill to give women the right to vote for representatives in congress.

Trans-Atlantic traffic occupied attention of merchant marine committee hearing in shipping pool investigation. Commercial travelers representatives urged passage of Peters bill to require railroads to issue interchangeable mileage books.

Committee on agriculture reported favorably senate bill for protection of migratory and insectivorous birds.

Adjourned at 4:42 p. m., until 11 o'clock Saturday in respect to memory of Representative Leager of South Carolina.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 31.—The senate today defeated every attempt to amend the Works' single six year presidential term resolution. When recess was taken tonight it appeared certain that a final vote on the proposed constitutional amendment would be reached tomorrow, and its opponents were mustering all possible strength to defeat it.

As the resolution emerged from the days' fight in the senate it still provided for one term of six years for the chief executive and makes ineligible to retraction any person who has in the past held the office by election or by succession. The closest votes of the day came on Senator Owen's amendment for a direct popular vote on president and vice-president, defeated 35 to 32, and Senator Paynter's amendment to lengthen to six years the term of the president who might be in office when the constitutional amendment was finally ratified. This was defeated 36 to 30.

Proposals for two four year terms and one four year term, suggestions to modify the resolution so it would not effect Taft, Wilson or Roosevelt and amendments to make it apply only to presidents elected after its ratification, were all defeated by large majorities.

Progressives and Republicans who declared themselves friendly to Col. Roosevelt again led a fight against the entire resolution. The Progressives declared it was against American governmental principles to limit the right of the people to choose a president.

Senator Crawford insisted it was aimed at Roosevelt.

"We are asking the American people to foreclose themselves from the right to call into their service the man of the hour during a crisis upon which the very destiny of the republic may be hanging," declared Senator Crawford. "We have no fear of a despot."

"No we are not afraid of a despot," retorted Senator Williams. "Neither was any other fool nation that ever existed, until after they had got him."

Traveling Men Complain.

Raymond Alley and Ira F. Libbey of Boston, representing traveling mens organizations today urged the house inter-state commerce commission to report favorably the Peters bill to require railroads to issue interchangeable mileage books, good on all leased, owned or operated lines. The committee was told that the present mileage system puts traveling men to great inconvenience.

Three Arkansas Senators.

Arkansas had the distinction of having three United States senators at work in Washington today. Senator Clarke, Senator Heiskell and Senator Kavanaugh. Mr. Kavanaugh reached the city shortly after one o'clock bearing a commission to succeed Senator Heiskell. The latter answered the first roll call of the day in the senate and then left the chamber, his successor then taking the oath of office.

CASTRO TEMPORARILY FREE IN NEW YORK

RELEASED UNDER WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS ISSUED BY JUDGE HOLT

Venezuelan Happy and Talks Freely—Declares Statute of Liberty Ought to be Placed on the Panama Canal Zone.

NEW YORK, JAN. 31.—Cipriano Castro, former president of Venezuela, walked the streets of New York this afternoon, temporarily a free man under a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Holt in the federal court. Argument on the question of making the writ permanent will be heard on Friday next.

A surety company gave bail for the general, which was fixed by the court at $500. The case was brought before Judge Holt as the result of the refusal of the department of commerce and labor to admit the former president to this country. Followed by a curious crowd, Castro went immediately to the Hotel Plaza, where he had engaged a suite. He was all smiles and beaming with happiness as he invited photographers to surround him as he posed for pictures.

Before the habeas corpus proceedings had been called the Little Venezuelan issued a statement bitterly attacking the Washington authorities for excluding him. After the court proceedings Castro said:

"I am glad I have finally found a judge who is willing to give me justice."

Talks Freely to Reporters.

Castro was happy and talked freely with reporters.

"This is an event upon which I can congratulate myself," he said. "Some people tried to sow discord between this country and Venezuela but they have failed. When the Latin-American Republics learn that I have found a just judge in the United States it will be a matter of satisfaction to every one of them. This event has established a new bond of union between North and South America."

"The Statute of Liberty will bring brighter days for this I wish happiness to the United States and I wish happiness to Venezuela. I wish them both to be united in bonds of equity, justice and mutual prosperity."

Castro did not think the United States should justify the Panama canal. He said:

"If the rule of right is to prevail, there will be no need for the United States to fortify the canal. If force, the United States cannot fight all the nations of the earth. The Statute of Liberty ought to be placed on the Panama canal zone. This was the idea of Bolivar, the George Washington of South America."

The association elected Louis Lowenstein, White Hall, president; H. E. Atkins, New Canton, and W. R. Curran, Pekin, vice-presidents; W. D. Gibbs, White Hall, secretary.

L. Y. Sherman exhorted the association to work for the reclamation of seventy-five million acres of swamp and other uncultivated lands in Illinois and urged that this be given priority over waterway agitation.

He pleaded not guilty.

The Pfanschmidt quadruple murder came to light on September 29th last, when the remains of the victims were found in the ruins of the Pfanschmidt home with their heads split open. Just a century ago Princeton gave its last president to the nation—James Madison. The centenary will be celebrated in a unique program to which Mr. Wilson gave his consent today when Paul F. Myers, a Princeton senior, rode on the train with him to New York he outlined the details on behalf of the students.

The Princeton youths will charter two special trains, of thirteen cars each on March 3rd. One car will be put at the disposal of the president-elect and his family and accompanying newspaper men. The governor "13" confronting him again, for he believes it means luck to him.

Thousand Students to Go.

The students, more than a thousand strong, will take Mr. Wilson direct to his hotel on arrival at Washington and will attend the smoker given that evening by the Princeton alumni association of Washington. The next morning the students will escort Mr. Wilson from his hotel to the white house where President Taft will join the incoming president and ride with him to the capitol.

The students, together with the Essex cavalry troop of New Jersey, will precede the presidential carriage to the capitol.

After the ceremony at the capitol, the Princetonians will take their place in the inaugural parade just behind the military and at the head of civic organizations.

"I will be delighted. That will be fine," exclaimed Mr. Wilson when the plans of the students were explained. He added that he wanted to reach Washington about four o'clock in the afternoon so as to get a few hours rest before the Princeton smoker.

Mr. Wilson came to New York for his usual week-end diversion from official activity. He attended a meeting of the Round Table club, of which he is a member. He planned to return to Princeton tomorrow and will spend Sunday there.

Military Escort for Marshall.

Washington, Jan. 31.—For the first time in history, a vice-president-elect will be attended by a military escort on the occasion of Governor Marshall's induction into office March 4th.

This has been arranged as the result of the written suggestion of Governor Wilson to Major General Wood, chief marshal of the inaugural parade. The latter has directed that the troop of Culver cadets of the military academy at Culver, Ind., shall serve as the escort of the new vice-president, throughout the inaugural ceremonies.

The adoption of Governor Wilson's suggestion establishes a precedent and has necessitated a slight re-arrangement of the program for the inaugural parade.

The Round Table club, whose dinner Mr. Wilson attended, has been in existence between 40 and 50 years, but Prof. Brander Matthews, one of its members, said tonight that not a line had ever appeared in print about it. It consists of about twenty members, every one of whom is prominent in some way, in literature, public affairs or otherwise. Among them are the president-elect, former Ambassador Joseph H. Choate, John L. Cadwalader, and Dr. S. Weir Mitchell.

The members meet on the last Friday of each month to engage in table talk. No speeches are allowed.

Chicago, Jan. 31.—A bandit, disguised by a handkerchief tied over the lower part of his face, robbed the safe of an express car here tonight and escaped with a bag of currency thought to contain several thousand dollars. The car was attached to a local special express train of the Pennsylvania railroad. The bandit compelled the express messenger to open the safe at the point of a revolver.

The conductor of the train seized the thief as he was about to leap from the car with the bag of money, but the man felled him with a blow of his fist. He escaped apparently unhurt, although the conductor recovered himself and fired two shots at him.

The robbed train is known as the "Stock Yards Special." It is used to carry money and valuable express matter between the Union Stock Yards and the downtown district.

Old Age.

Old age as it comes in the orderly process of nature is a beautiful and majestic thing. It stands for experience, knowledge, wisdom, counsel. That is old age as it should be, but old age as it often is means poor digestion, torpid bowels, a sluggish liver and a general feeling of ill health, despondency and misery. This in almost every instance is wholly unnecessary. One of Chamberlain's Tablets taken immediately after supper will improve the digestion, tone up the liver and regulate the bowels. That feeling of despondency will give way to one of hope and good cheer. For sale by all dealers.

MANY MURRAYVILLE FAMILIES MOVING TO NORTH DAKOTA

Over Twenty Families Have Left Morgan County to Try Farming in Northern Country—Many Will Make Trip Now on Chartered Alton Train.

It is estimated that over twenty families have gone from the Murrayville neighborhood and that portion of Morgan county to North Dakota during the last few years. The first family to go was James Osborne of Murrayville about ten years ago. It will be remembered that Mr. Osborne died a short time since. Several farmers about Murrayville have had sales recently and some have already gone and others are preparing to go on a special train.

The Alton has chartered to the immigrants 34 cars and will run the cars through, on a regular schedule to Larimore, N. D., and other immediate points, at a cost of $1,000. The special train will also have families from the vicinity of Hillview and Bloomington. It is expected that this train will go the last of February or the first week in March.

Among those to go are Herbert Clayton and family, Arthur Clayton and family, Alvin Sweeney and family, Alvin Brackwell and family, Bert Spahnower and family, Sinclair Russell and family, Herbert Clayton has a section of land and Arthur Clayton will farm 1280 acres of the 3700 owned by Charles E. Henry of Woodson. Mr. Spahnower has 320 acres and Sinclair Russell a section.

Those who have already gone to that country are Newton Henry and family, Irvin Jones and family; Steven Warcup and family; James and Arthur Phoenix. The Phoenix boys will farm land owned by Dr. G. O. Webster. Charles Moore, E. W. Cunningham and family; Richard Cunningham, Ernest and George Fanning. These latter two have about 900 acres.

While the country is very extensive in North Dakota, the families moving there feel that they are in the same community and that everything in common. Land there sells from $40 to $75 per acre and mostly wheat is raised. It being a little to far north for corn. Each year there goes from Morgan county a large number of young men who spend the summer near Larimore assisting in farm work and returning in the winter.

QUIT CALOMEL! Thousands Are Turning From This Dangerous Drug.

A Safe Vegetable Substitute is Olive Tablets For the Liver.

Dr. F. M. Edwards, a prominent physician of Ohio, has discovered a new laxative and liver toner in a combination of vegetable materials, mixed with olive oil, which is in effect almost exactly like the old and untrustworthy calomel, except that there are none of the bad after effects of calomel.

Dr. Edwards has long been a foe of calomel, though he recognized its value along with its dangers.

His distrust of the uncertain drug eventually started him years ago towards experiments with the view of discovering a substitute, and he is today in possession of the long-sought-for combination, which is in the shape of a little sugar-coated, olive-oil colored tablet.

The results of 17 years' experience and practice are embodied in these marvelous little tablets.

They are called Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. They oil the bowels, and their effect on the liver has been the means of relief to many of Dr. Edwards' regular patients as well as to thousands of others who have suffered and were afraid of calomel.

They are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of harmful impurities. 10c and 25c per box.

HUNTER HAS NARROW ESCAPE. What came near being a serious accident happened to Lawrence Liehr of Pittsfield last Wednesday. He had been out with his shotgun hunting and was returning home. He let the gun fall out of his hands to the ground discharging both barrels, part of the charge entering his left foot tearing a large furrow in the foot and tearing a hole in one toe. It will keep him from hunting awhile and he will likely have a tender place on the foot for some time to come.

Ten States Have Approved. Notice of the approval by the Oregon and Idaho legislatures of the proposed constitutional amendment providing for the election of senators by direct vote has just been received at the state department. This makes ten states which have approved the amendment. The rapidity with which the state legislatures are now acting upon this proposed amendment has suggested the possibility though remote of its actual ratification before the income tax amendment though the votes of only two states are required for the latter case. This would lead to a singular complication, as the congressional resolution regarding the income tax which serves as a basis of the action of the state legislatures in designated "Article XVI," which designation forms part of the act itself. It is understood, however, that New Jersey is about to complete legislative action on the last named amendment.

Want Two Battleships. On behalf of his state's delegation in congress, Representative Stephen B. Ayres, of New York, has just completed a canvass of the Democratic members of the house to ascertain their attitude regarding appropriation for the construction of two battleships this year. His canvass, Mr. Ayres declared tonight, showed that over half of the Democratic members favored the authorization of two battleships at this session. The results of the canvass were reported by Representative Padgett, chairman of the house naval affairs committee, who is in favor of a one-battleship-a-year program.

The two battleship advocates were pleased tonight over the showing made in the canvass and the belief is expressed that the naval appropriation bill, which may be reported next week, will include provisions for two warships.

Discuss Free List. Modification of the administrative provisions of the tariff law, the free admission of medicines and surgical instruments for hospitals and scientific apparatus for institutions of research, and continuance of free admission of numerous raw materials were urged at the concluding hearing before the house committee on ways and means today.

Approximately six hundred leading hospitals in the country had a spokesman, George F. Clover, superintendent of the St. Luke's hospital in New York. Mr. Clover asked that the free list be so amended as to include hospitals that render medical and surgical aid free of charge among the institutions be permitted to import free apparatus, utensils, instruments and preparations for medical and surgical purposes.

AERO SNOW BOAT LATEST INVENTION IN NORTH DAKOTA

Boat Has Attained Speed Over Snow of 60 Miles An Hour—Inventor Claims It Can Make 100 Miles An Hour.

Chicago, Jan. 31.—The aero snowboat is the latest method of getting over the ground in North Dakota. It was constructed by a Grand Forks boy. An aeroplane motor with a seven foot, six inch propeller furnishes the motive power for the unique ground covering machine. The boat has been speeded over the snow at a rate of sixty miles an hour, and on a level unobstructed stretch, the inventor thinks he can cover 100 miles an hour. The boat is 14 feet long with a torpedo hood over the front and has room for three passengers.

FIRST BOX SCORE 30 YEARS AGO

GAME BETWEEN "BLUE SOCKS" AND "OLD TIMERS."

Explanation is Made For Readers Not Acquainted With Tabulated Statement—Score Made by Ex-Governor Richard Yates, Jr.

It will be interesting to the baseball fans in Jacksonville and vicinity to know that over thirty years ago the first box score of a game in this city was published. The game was a contest between two local clubs, the Blue Socks and the Old Timers. The score was kept by ex-Governor Richard Yates Jr., while he was a member of the reportorial staff. The game was played August 17, 1883, and in the line-up are some of the well known business men of Jacksonville today. The story of the game follows:

The second game of baseball between the Blue Socks and the Old Timers was played on the South Main street grounds yesterday. The nines were as before quite evenly matched, and a good game was the result. At the end of the fifth inning, where it was at first intended the game should end, the Old Timers were two runs ahead, but in the sixth and seventh innings they were whitewashed, while their opponents added eight tallies to their score. The game was watched by an interested crowd, who occasionally applauded a good play. The umpire was Mr. William S. Phillips. Loar's left-handed pitching was a good thing for the Blue Socks. Waddell did well for the Old Timers and Hockenbush's hard balls also counted for them. At the wind-up, at the close of the eighth inning, the Blue Socks were ahead by a score of 19 to 14.

"Below we give the score and as it is the first time we have given a score anywhere near in full," we will explain the same for the benefit of those of our readers not familiar with the tabulated statement as so arranged. In the first column opposite each player's name is placed the number of times each was at the bat. In the second column are the runs each player has made. In the third are the number of times he has reached first base on a base hit. The letters "P. O." at the head of the fourth column stand for "put outs," and in this column is set down the number of opponents each player has put out. In the last column appear the errors of each player in fielding. We have not endeavored to note all the errors, but only the more noticeable ones, such as wild throws, muffs, etc. Of the assists we also kept no record.

PREPARATIONS FOR NEW CURRENCY ARE FINISHED

Size of Paper Money Will Be Reduced by One Third—Design for Back of Note Is Accepted by Mac Veagh.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Preparations for completely changing the designs of all American currency and reducing the size of paper money by one third were practically finished today by the treasury department. The design for the back of the notes, created by Kenyon Cox of New York, was submitted to Secretary MacVeagh who accepted it on condition that it is approved by the fine arts commission.

Simple and artistic is the treasury department's design which consists of allegorical figures representing "America," "peace," "Plenty," "Labor" and "Commerce."

The treasury department practically has finished a design for the face of the notes. A vignette of Washington will adorn the face of the one dollar notes. The portraits for the other notes have not been decided on.

ROUTT COLLEGE HIGH
WINS FROM VIRGINIAAlexander Scores Winning Points in Last Few Minutes of Play.

Routt college high school broke its losing streak Friday evening by defeating the Virginia high school team in a game at Liberty hall by the score of 26 to 24. In a curtain raiser the Playgrounds team defeated the Routt high second team by a score of 20 to 5.

At the end of the first half the score stood 10 to 7 in favor of Virginia, and the local players attributed this to the referee, saying that he was partial to his home team. In the second half both teams played a fast game and just before the end of the game Alexander threw a field goal which won the game for the locals. For the visitors Whitaker starred, securing three field and seven foul goals. Cooper was next with one field and five foul goals and Hill secured two field goals. Alexander of the locals secured six field and ten foul goals and Groves at center threw two field goals. Butler and Froelich played a good game and Caldwell, the new man from White Hall showed up very good. The locals missed Manager Donovan in shooting baskets and Sheehan was also out of the game on account of sickness.

The line-ups were:
Virginia—Hill and Whitaker, forwards; Cooper, center; Sutherland and Treadway, guards.
Routt—Alexander, Froelich and Wheeling, forwards; Groves, center; Butler and Caldwell, guards.

Officials—Stadler of Virginia, referee; Cain, umpire; Hickson and Gustafson, timers; Donovan, scorer.

REV. G. W. MILLER SPOKE ON "WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE"

Large Audience Present at Grace Church Revival—Sunday Expected to Be Full Day.

At the Grace church revival Rev. Mr. Miller speaking on the subject: "What's the Difference?" brought out the vast difference between the Christian and non-Christian life. A good audience faced the bitter wind to attend the services. Many young strangers have been at the meetings from night to night. The singers were at their posts and have rendered faithful service. The subject was based on two texts Math. 25, 29, "From him that hath not shall be taken even that which he hath" and 1 Cor. 3, 21, "For all things are yours". These two verses of scripture set forth the difference between the Christian and the non-Christian. How great is that difference. It is as great as the distance the east is from the west; as great as the distance between nothing and all things.

There are those who say, "What is the difference between men and many of your church people?" There were people in Christ's time who said that they were better than he. They ridiculed his religion because he went to dine with Publicans and sinners. But they were white washed sepulchres, hypocrites.

With a complacent self righteousness millions are drifting along not knowing whether they are going morally and religiously. They will not think earnestly and soberly about their spiritual condition and consequently are stumbling along blindly as to the matter of their spiritual interests.

Men do that only with these highest, divinest interests. They do not do so with business or other material, temporal matters. "My people will not consider" was the complaint of the prophet and it is as true to day.

Few men stop to think what is the cost of not being a Christian. They have reckoned up the cost of not having an education. On the average it cost a man a clean $1,000 a year for each working year for not having an education. If a man works 40 years, ignorance costs him $40,000. Beside the joy of knowledge and usefulness.

All this is more significant of the souls education than of the mind. What is the cost of not being a Christian? It is impossible to estimate. The young ruler who declined to become a follower of Christ might have had Paul's great task, for he seemed to be fitted for it in life and training. "Can any man estimate what Paul's life has been to the world. Can any man estimate what that refusal cost that young ruler?"

Yet there are those who profess not to be able to see the difference between being a Christian and a non-Christian. Read again the words, "From him that hath not shall be taken even that which he hath". Then turn to the text: "All things are yours and ye are Christ's and Christ is God's". And yet ye say there is no difference.

Sunday's plans are being laid with the expectations for fine result. The day will be full of religious activity. Rev. Mr. Miller will preach twice and speak to the Sunday School. Meet enquirers and assist in prayer services. It is to be a great day. Rev. Hy S. Alkire and Mrs. Alkire were present at the service last night and assisted the pastor.

Don't fail to attend the play at Ebenezer church Saturday night, "The Dust of the Earth," given by Literary talent.

By the time the meeting is conducted the terms of the officers who are located in Rock Island will have expired. It is presumed that an entirely new body of officers will be chosen, owing to the dissatisfaction which was expressed so freely by many of the members of the organization in regard to the threatened increase in the rate as advocated by the head officers at their headquarters in Rock Island.

ILLINOIS MEETS NORMAL TONIGHT

FAST BASKETBALL TEAMS WILL STRIVE FOR HONORS.

Normal Has Defeated Strong Wesleyan Squad by Score of 28 to 11.—Coach Harmon's Men Ready For the Fray.

The Illinois college basketball team will go to Normal today where they will meet the fast Normal university five on the university floor tonight. The Normal team is very strong this year as is shown by the fact that three weeks ago they surprised the fast Wesleyan team and defeated them by a score of 28 to 11. Later they won from Lincoln college by the close score of 29 to 28. Bradley Institute barely nosed Normal out by 22 to 21. Last Thursday night Normal swamped the William & Vashti collegians by the top-heavy count of 52 to 29.

Consequently the Illinois men will have their hands full when they meet the pedagogues tonight. Courtwright, center on the Normal team, was the choice for all-state center last year and is just getting into his last season's form, shown by the fact that against William & Vashti he secured seven field goals. The practice of the Illinois squad has been irregular all week because of the semester examinations. Consequently the team is not in the very best of condition. Nevertheless, they are prepared to give Normal an extremely interesting game. The probable line-up will be:

Normal—Kasbeer, Benjamin, Stout, forwards; Courtwright, center; Westhoff, Briggs, guards.

Receiver Makes Announcement That Prisoner Tells Story to Former Governor Bates.

Boston, Jan. 31.—William J. Keliher, commonly known as Big Bill Keliher has told former Governor Bates, receiver for the National bank of Cambridge, what he knows about the looting of that institution. The receiver made this announcement today but would not reveal what had been told him.

George W. Coleman, a bookkeeper and Keliher are serving prison sentences; the former for the larceny of $350,000 and the latter for aiding the crime. Keliher and Martin J. Walsh got most of the money by getting the bookkeeper into fake faro games in New York. Walsh is said to have since died.

Published versions of the Keliher statement which Mr. Bates refuses to confirm or deny say the prisoner has named many prominent New York and Boston men as among his victims and others who received portions of the loot. Keliher, it is said told the receiver where some of the bank's money went and Mr. Bates is preparing to institute criminal proceedings against several parties.

Thousands of women no longer resign themselves to the thought that sickness and distress are natural. They know better, for in Mother's Friend they have found a wonderful, penetrating remedy to banish all those dreaded experiences. It is a subject every woman should be familiar with, and even though she may not require such a remedy, she will now and then meet some prospective mother to whom a word in time about Mother's Friend will come as a wonderful blessing. This famous remedy is sold by all druggists, and is only $1.00 a bottle. It is for external use only, and is really worth its weight in gold. Write to-day to the Bradstreet Regulator Co., 127 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most valuable book. There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. JANUARY WEATHER INFLUENCES TRADE

BUSINESS EXPANSION OF 1912 IS MAINTAINED IN FIRST MONTH OF 1913.

Few Places Are Reported Have Enjoyed Good Seasonable Retail Trade and Mild Weather of Past Month is Held Responsible.

New York, Jan. 31.—Dun's Review tomorrow will say:
 The business expansion which began in 1912 was steadily maintained throughout the first month of the year and reports from various sections continue satisfactory. Weather conditions affect distribution adversely in certain industries and tariff uncertainty is responsible for conservative buying in lines affected. Labor troubles now apparently approaching adjustment, have it from the demand for materials used for the manufacture of clothing but the general effect on drygoods trade is comparatively slight. The iron and steel trade continues so active that only the incapacity of the mills to make prompt delivery prevents further expansion. The open winter construction work is in progress. In view of large excess of merchandise exports from this country during the last year, the fact that we have recently sent over $15,000,000 of gold out of the country is regarded as an unusual development. Most of it has gone to Paris, where the markets, as in other European centers are still disturbed by the Balkan crisis. Our own securities markets are quiet, with little speculation.

Bradstreet's Report.
 New York, Jan. 31.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Though trade tends are running in a favorable direction there is enough irregularity to divest the situation of uniformity. Over and beyond all is the fact that the larger centers of distribution continue to do remarkably well this being most patent in cereal producing regions that were favored by heavy crops. Comparatively few places can boast of good seasonable retail trade, and for this mild weather must be held responsible.

Money is easy; funds are returning from the interior in volume and western banks are liberal buyers of commercial paper, though it is reported that the demand exceeds the supply. Stock market operations have been more active, the market appears to have been heavily oversold, and on the whole, the tendency has been upward, but most of the activity has been contributed by a few stocks.

Business failures for the week ending January 30th were 361 which compares with 312 in the like week of 1912.

Bank Clearings.
 New York, Jan. 31.—Bradstreet's bank clearing report for the week ending January 30th, shows an aggregate of $2,288,570,000 as against $2,599,888,000 last week and $3,167,359,000 in the corresponding week last year.

EARLY NEWSPAPER ITS RARE COMPILATION

Manner of Noting Events in Unique Diary of Andrew Jackson's Life.

The Independent Citizen, one of early newspapers of the country, published at Bel-Air, Hartford county, Maryland, and covering from August 4, 1831, to August 1, 1833, is a rare volume. It is a six column, four page weekly, is well printed on the best of paper. It is devoted to agriculture, manufactures, internal improvements, political information, the arts and sciences and general literature. It is the champion of Henry Clay and is, of course, unfriendly to Andrew Jackson, who was then president.

This valued newspaper file is the property of R. W. Phillips, a traveling man of Bloomington, and the Bulletin in speaking of it says: "It is an heirloom in the family descending from Mr. Phillips' grandparents. It is published by John McKenney, Jr., and Lynde Elliott and one of these editors was probably related to the Phillips family. Mr. Phillips has many interesting anomalies handed down from early generations. He has comments on the Bible written three hundred years ago and as an evidence of the novelty of different heirlooms and the sentiment attaching to them, it might be cited that he has his great grandmother's wedding ring, his grandmother's wedding ring, and his mother's nuptial ring."

Diary of Andrew Jackson's Life.
 As an evidence of their fondness for President Jackson they print the following:

"The president of the United States being about to visit New England, the Richmond Wrig recommends to the editor of the Globe, who it is supposed will attend him, in some mental capacity suited to his sycophantic subservience, to keep a diary of his actions, and offers the following as a specimen."

"General Jackson usually rises in the morning about 8—sits by the fire in his night gown, until a quarter past. He is then shaved, pretty much like other men, one side at a time, damming his barber during the whole operation with true Roman energy. At times he opens his mouth, and at others he thrusts his tongue into his cheeks, in order to tighten the skin, and assist the tonsure. Mr. Treasurer Campbell reads the newspapers to him until 9, he spends the next half hour in venting imprecations upon us. He takes breakfast in his chamber, discourses upon matters and on things general, eats his toast with great appetite, and vows vengeance against the nullifiers—sends for us at 11—we arrive—find him in a passion worthy of Caesar; receive his abuse with due submission; he makes application of his foot to our body corporate, and we are landed at the foot of the staircase; walks about the town until one; returns home; sees company; dines; drinks a bottle with Amos; smokes a cigar, and takes a siesta; receives company in the evening, makes himself very agreeable, and retires at 11; Major Smith and Amos help him off with his pantaloons; he pulls off his coat himself; winds up his watch; goes to bed in one bed; Smith and Amos pig in the trundle; the Hero converses for a while; falls into sublime contemplations upon war and glory; falls asleep, and snores as musically as Alexander the Great."

And Then This.
 Our columns are almost exclusively occupied today with the highly interesting address from Judge Berrien to the public. This address establishes, incontrovertibly, the disgraceful fact, that the president of the United States did attempt to compel the ladies of three members of his cabinet to associate with the wife of Major Eaton, and that for non-compliance with his demand, those members were dismissed from the public service. It establishes another important fact, that, but for the interference of others, he would have dismissed a foreign minister, because his lady did not visit with Mrs. Eaton. Thus the country might have been involved in war, to gratify the folly and ambition of a woman.—Baltimore Chronicle.

Lafayette's Fine Words.
 "General Lafayette, in an able speech on the election law of France, which he delivered in the chamber of deputies on the 15th of January, last, made this remarkable observation:

"I shall not speak of the government of the United States, although I am one of those who pay it the just tribute of calling it the pattern government. But we are now told that what I should call Republican institutions suit only a vast continent, bounded on the one side by ocean and the other by widely extended forests. Formerly, however, it was said that they suited only for an island—they are suited to every country where the citizens are intelligent and wish to be free."

Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
 Rev. James A. Lewis, Milaca, Minn., writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been a needed and welcome guest in our home for a number of years. I highly recommend it to my fellows as being a medicine worthy of trial in cases of colds, coughs and croup." Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a trial and we are confident you will find it very effectual and continue to use it as occasion requires for years to come, as many others have done. For sale by all dealers.

W. S. Skelton, a merchant at Stanley, Ind., says he would not take $100.00 for the relief a single box of Foley Kidney Pills gave him. "I had a severe attack of kidney trouble with sharp pains through my back and could hardly straighten up. A single box of Foley Kidney Pills entirely relieved me." City Drug Store—J. A. Obermeyer.

In preparation of the event, a special train, which left Bloomington, Tuesday, carrying officials of the company over the line where the telephones are to be put in use, which is between Bloomington and St. Louis.

These officials are stopping at every station where a telephone has been installed, inspecting it, and at the same time, instructing the operators in the handling of the telephone, how to take train orders, how to speak through it, and what to speak, and words that should not be spoken. All operators, both day and night, are on hand to receive these instructions. A bulletin has been issued by the Alton management to trainmen and engineers, instructing them in the use of the telephone.

Some telephones are placed in booths at sidings available to trainmen only, and to be used only in cases of emergency, where trains are caught on short time for superior trains. In such cases the conductor of the inferior class train can go to the telephone booth, get in connection with the dispatcher, and get orders for the movement of his train.

The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. H. A. WINTER GIVES ADVICE TO FARMERS OF ILLINOIS

Well Known Corn Expert Points to Value of Crop Rotation and Tells of Possibilities of Soil of This State.

Speaking at Lombard University, H. A. Winter, the corn expert of Wisconsin, gave to farmers some very sound advice as to the care of land and if the ideas are heeded great benefits will accrue to them. His subject was "Rotation of Crops."

The first statement was a question: Why should we rotate crops? The speaker proceeded to give his reasons, that of restoring to the land its former property of organic matter which has been farmed out. That of restoring fertility. The crops are good to day not because of the richer quality of the soil but because of the better art the farmers are beginning to use. Scientific farming of land is knowing the condition of the soil, and the requirements for the plants. He gave advice to the landlord urging him to fix his land instead of depending on the tenant to do it. He gave an example of two pieces of land adjoining each other. One farm raised 50 bushels, the other 40. Both were renting for half grain rent. The land lord renting for half on the 40 bushel land should improve his land so as to make it bring more, then the land lord is not taking advantage and the tenant is giving and receiving a square deal.

Mr. Winter gave a history of the prairie land we live on, the way it has been used by the farmer. The land after hard usage become void of organic matter which is necessary for plant growth. The soil becomes powdered and loses its property of holding moisture. To illustrate he gave an example of powdered sugar not taking up water, as does the square of granulated. The powdered soil has no life. It is the farmer's dead land. The ground becomes tight water, sunlight and air are unable to penetrate, the top becomes a waste after a rain, baking upon the sun shining on it. "This is the very reason we should rotate crops." By doing so we add the organic necessity and break up the soil, keeping it in a granulated form. The farmer makes a mistake when he thinks that if he is a stock farmer he does not need to use a fertilizer. The stock farmer cannot possibly have enough manure to fertilize his land.

There are ten elements that are necessary for plant growth. If even one of these is lacking the plant cannot grow. Nitrogen and phosphorus are the usual ones lacking in this section of the country. To supply the nitrogen the farmer should not cut his clover crop, but turn it under. A load of dry clover may contain 40 pounds of nitrogen. If the chemical were brought out of stock, that amount would cost six dollars; this is enough so it would pay the farmer to keep his clover for the nitrogen. The problem is to keep up the organic supply and the plant food.

The way to tell what chemical element the land needs is not to have it analyzed, the chemist can tell you what elements you have, but he cannot tell you whether that element is available or not. The way to do is to ask the land. If the foliage is pale the land needs nitrogen. Experiment and follow the results of experiments. A man may put car loads of phosphorus on his land and not get results, because he has not a decaying agent. Manure should be used with it or use it with turned under clover. One of the clover crops should be given back to the ground, either the hay crop should be clipped or the seed crop should be turned under.

Mr. Winter gave numerous illustrations of his own experiments, and gave many good ideas to the farmers.

RULES GOVERNING PARCEL POST.

Since the parcel post has been inaugurated by the government many inquiries have been received at the Journal office concerning regulations governing this service. Friday the Journal printed the first of a series of articles covering the rules governing this service. The second installment follows:

Distinctive Stamps.

Sec. 8. The law requires that on and after January 1, 1913, the postage on all matter of the fourth class must be prepaid by distinctive parcel post stamps affixed (see sec. 3). Postmasters cannot receive for mailing parcels that do not bear such stamps.

2. Parcel post stamps are not valid for the payment of postage on matter of the first, second and third classes, and, when used for that purpose, the matter to which they are affixed shall be treated as "Held for postage," as prescribed in sec. 9.

Insufficiently Prepaid Matter.

Sec. 9. When parcels bearing ordinary postage stamps are presented for mailing, the senders shall be required to affix parcel post stamps before the matter is accepted. When a parcel bears ordinary postage stamps or the postage is otherwise insufficiently prepaid, and the sender cannot be located, the matter shall be treated as unpaid or insufficiently prepaid, marked, "Held for postage," and the addressee notified immediately on Form 1543 (except as provided in sec. 38). Such matter shall be held not longer than two weeks, unless the office of address is so remote that the postage could not be received from the addressee within that time. If the required postage is received, parcel post stamps of the value thereof shall be affixed to the matter in such manner as to cover a part of the words "Held for postage" and the parcel dispatched.

2. When the sender of any insufficiently prepaid matter pays the postage, after dispatch of notice to the addressee, such matter shall be indorsed "Postage subsequently paid by the sender," the stamps affixed, and the matter dispatched.

3. When the required postage is not received from the addressee within the time specified, the matter shall be marked "Unclaimed" and sent to the division of dead letters.

Where Mailable.

Sec. 10. Parcels must be mailed at a postoffice, branch postoffice, named or lettered station, or such numbered stations as may be designated by the postmaster, or delivered to a rural or other carrier duly authorized to receive such matter.

2. Parcels collected on star routes must be deposited in the next postoffice at which the carrier arrives and postage charged at the rate from that office.

Preparation for Mailing.

Sec. 11. Parcels must be prepared for mailing in such manner that the contents can be easily examined. (See secs. 19 to 27, inclusive).

2. A parcel must not be accepted for mailing unless it bears the name and address of the sender preceded by the word "From."

3. In addition to the name and address of the sender, which is required, it is permissible to write or print on the covering of a parcel, or on a tag or label attached to it, the occupation of the sender, and to indicate in a small space by means of marks, letters, numbers, names or other brief description, the character of the parcel but ample space must be left on the address side for the full address in legible characters and for the necessary postage stamps. Inscriptions such as "Merry Christmas," "Happy New Year," "With Best Wishes," "Please do not open until Christmas," and the like, may be placed on the covering of the parcel in such manner as not to interfere with the address.

Examination of Parcels.

Sec. 12. Postmasters must examine parcels when presented for mailing to ascertain that the postage is fully prepaid.

2. When any parcel offered for mailing is sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or contains or bears writing not permissible, it is subject to postage at the first class rate and shall be treated as first class matter (except as provided in secs. 26 and 32). If such a parcel exceeds four pounds in weight it is unmailable.

3. A parcel containing two or more classes of mail matter is chargeable with postage at the rate applicable to the highest class of matter included. A parcel composed of two articles, one being matter of the third class and the other matter of the fourth class, is chargeable with postage at the fourth class rate when such postage is equal to or greater than that which would be chargeable if the third class rate were applicable. However, when the postage on a parcel containing both third and fourth class matter amounts to more at the third class than at the fourth class rate, owing to the graduated zone rates, the parcel must be charged with postage at the third class rate (one cent for each two ounces or fraction of two ounces) and in such case the parcel must not exceed four pounds in weight, unless it is a single book.

Sec. 13. When the postmaster at the office of mailing is satisfied that the sender of a parcel has knowingly concealed matter of a higher class therein, he must report the case to the third assistant postmaster general, giving all the circumstances, including the name of the sender, if known, the name of the addressee, the office and date of mailing, and a description of the parcel and of the matter concealed therein.

2. When the postmaster at the office of address is satisfied that matter of a higher class has been knowingly concealed in a parcel, he shall deliver the parcel to the addressee on the payment of the proper postage and report the facts to the third assistant postmaster general. If the proper postage is not paid, the parcel shall be retained by the postmaster to be used as evidence, and he should be able to establish its identity.

Sec. 14. Postmasters at offices of address shall examine incoming parcels, and if any are found subject to postage in excess of the amount prepaid thereon, shall charge them with the deficient postage and collect it on delivery. If the addressee objects to the payment of the additional postage he may deposit the amount with the postmaster, who shall give a receipt therefor and submit to the third assistant postmaster general a full statement of the facts. Should it be held that the parcel was prepaid at the proper rate, the postmaster will be directed to refund the deposit. If the parcel is not withdrawn by either the sender or addressee within 30 days, the postmaster shall report the facts to the fourth assistant postmaster general (division of dead letters) and await instructions.

A tract of eighty acres of the Brandenburg estate, one mile south of Milmine, was sold at administrator's sale for $225 an acre. It was purchased by I. M. Beidler and Thomas Dobson, the former taking the north forty acres and the latter the south forty.

We have picked certain dealers to sell Zephyr Flour, because each has a reputation for handling only the best Zephyr Flour has won a reputation in thousands of homes for the lighter, whiter bread it bakes, the flakier biscuit, the more tender cake it makes. To protect this reputation we have made it an ironclad rule to place the agency for this flour with those dealers only who handle the highest quality of food products.

Zephyr Flour

is made from the best of Kansas hard wheat. This wheat is rich in food value.

We wash it and grind it with the greatest care to preserve this goodness. We sell it with a flat guarantee to give satisfaction or money back. Every Zephyr Flour dealer is instructed to refund the purchase price on request.

Our chemist's certificate is in each sack of Zephyr Flour—thus assuring that both the wheat and flour have passed our rigid quality test and that every sack is uniform. Should you be dissatisfied, the certificate is good for a free sack.

MOST ASTONISHING WEATHER!

And Its Net Result to You

Yes, indeed, this has been a most astonishing winter season thus far, but, withal, acceptable to most any person. For the merchant it has been somewhat of a facer. All calculations, based upon the average past seasons, have proven useless. While trade in general has been brisk and we have absolutely no complaint to make about our treatment at the hands of the people in Jacksonville and vicinity, we must say that there obviously has not been the usual demand for winter clothing of medium and heavy weight. Now, what we want to say is, that for the reason above, we have left some most astonishing bargains in this season's high grade Suits and Overcoats for men and boys and coats for women and children. We are not going to quote prices, but just ask you to make us a call at your first opportunity and let us demonstrate the amount of real money we are in a position to save you and the satisfaction you will find in trading at the

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

MOVEMENT IN STOCK MARKET IRREGULAR

WAS MARKED FALLING OFF IN AMOUNT OF BUSINESS.

Traders Operated in Cautious Way—
Prices Sag in Afternoon—Changes
Among Important Stocks Were Small.

(By Associated Press.)
New York, Jan. 31.—There was no trace today of the bullish enthusiasm of yesterday in the stock market speculation and altogether a fair degree of strength developed in the forepart of the session, the movement as a whole was irregular.
Traders operated in a more cautious way and there was a marked falling off in the amount of business. Tentative efforts to bring about a reaction during the first hour accomplished little and the failure of the bears was followed by increased activity on the long side with the result that Reading, Union and Steel were marked up a point or more. But the list failed to hold its advantage.
During the afternoon prices sagged back again and changes on the day among the important stocks were small.

American Canning, which has been the conspicuous feature of the week, was active during the early part of the day, and the common rose to 46 1/2, within a fraction of the high record of last fall. The unofficial statement of a plan for payoff of the accumulated dividends of nearly 33 per cent on the preferred stock through the issue of $15,000,000 fifteen year five per cent debenture bonds was followed by a sharp break, which bore down the common to 43, and the preferred from 129 to 124 1/2. The break was attributed as largely to realizing although there was some bear selling on the ground the announcement of the plan meant the conclusion of the upward manipulation of these stocks and that issuance of debentures entailed a considerable increase in the fixed charges of the company. After the canning stocks touched their low points they became quiet and trading in those issues for the remainder of the day was on a much smaller scale.

The gold export movement continued, engagement of $1,000,000 for France and an equal amount for South America being announced.
Foreign exchange weakened. Forecasts of tomorrow's bank statement discreased suggesting cash gains of $4,000,000 to $8,000,000.

DR. EDWARD BOWE HEARD IN ADDRESS

DISCUSSES IMPORTANT SUBJECT OF "CONTAGIOUS DISEASES."

Speaks Before the Members of the Parent-Teacher's Association at High School—Announcement of Congress of Mothers State Meeting Here.

Dr. Edward Bowe, was the speaker at the meeting of the Parent-Teacher's association held in the auditorium of the high school Friday afternoon. There was a large audience present and Mrs. J. H. Danskin acted as chairman. She announced that the treasury of the society had been enlarged to the extent of $50 through the benefit program given recently at the Opera house. She also spoke of the state meeting of the Illinois Congress of Mothers to be held in Jacksonville this spring. The musical number of the afternoon was a selection by the Treble Clef club.

The address by Dr. Bowe was heard with much interest and profit and the meeting was one of the best held by the association. Dr. Bowe spoke as follows:

One of the important points in considering this class of diseases, is the fact that they are transmissible either directly or indirectly from one person to another and that for individual and public protection our laws have been made to outline a definite plan for their care as far as protection of the public health is concerned and in addition organized society, almost as a whole, appreciates the value of a clear understanding of this subject by the general public. The relation of a certain group of these diseases to child life and their influence upon physical and mental development should demand their close study. Even as a matter of education should they be studied by those who are students in our advanced schools, and who are soon to preside over the destinies of our private and public life. It is not the intent or purpose to discuss "what is worth while in education" but the relation which the physical bears to the mental and moral development of the individual certainly has not yet attained the position it merits in our educational life.

Cause of Diseases.

Studying these diseases as a whole we recognize that they are caused by small microscopical plants that gain entrance to some of the tissues of the human body and by their growth and development causes certain disturbances, of the normal bodily functions, which we call disease.

These microscopical plants we term "Bacteria" and they belong in botanical terms to the Fungi. That you may have a clear understanding of the life and development of the fungi I have to but call your attention to the mold and the mushroom which belong to the same class of plants and are possessed of many of the marked characteristics of the bacteria—namely they are parasites and grow upon other hosts. They develop rapidly and under the unsanitary environment. They have life and development without their host and only require a favorable opportunity and subject to cause the development of disease.

A distinct form of bacteria is identified with each disease, and while in all of these diseases a certain form of bacteria is identified with a certain disease yet in a few the definite disease producing bacteria has not been identified, these we term diseases of unknown bacteriology, however the fact should be constantly borne in mind that the disease producing agent in an infectious disease comes from some other source than the body of its host, and that in the normal human body there is nothing that would produce such a disease; unless it has been introduced from without. This thought is the very corner stone of our modern sanitation.

In each of these diseases there is a time when the infectious material enters the body, this may be directly as in the inhalation of contaminated atmosphere by the coughing of a diphtheritic patient or indirectly as where a garment from a person infected with scarlet fever is exposed in the presence of those susceptible to the disease.

Quiescent Period.

There is a period of time following the infection when a person is apparently in the usual state of health, however, during this time the bacteria are increasing in numbers rapidly and when by their numbers and the products and changes produced by their growth such condition as fever and pain ensue the beginning of the disease is marked. This quiescent period is termed the period of incubation and may vary from a few days as in certain cases of diphtheria or scarlet fever to a period of weeks or months as seen in certain forms of tuberculosis.

Following the period of incubation there is a period of definite illness marked by fever, pain, bodily weakness, etc. This may vary from a few days as seen in a mild case of chicken-pox to several weeks as seen in an extreme case of typhoid fever. The danger of infection to others ceases when the patient has fully recovered and all possible sources of infection have been properly disinfected.

Considering the relations of the body to infectious diseases we recognize the influence of bodily resistance as the important factor in the development and course of these diseases. Fortunately for the human race each individual possesses either an acquired or inherited immunity so that the body successfully resists bacterial invasion and recovery most always occurs.

It is now admitted that the majority of the disorders that are produced by the entrance of bacteria into the body are due to the formation and diffusion of chemical poisons—toxines—which are the product of bacterial growth in the human tissues.

When the bodily tissues are excited by moderate doses of an infective poison they are stimulated to the production of a counter substance or anti-toxine. It is to the presence of such counter substances in the body that recovery takes place and immunity is due. When the anti-toxine is present in sufficient quantity bacterial invasion can not occur for the bacteria are destroyed or rendered inactive. When this condition exists as an original quality of the blood it constitutes what is termed natural immunity. It is to the production of such anti-toxines that the limitation of bacterial diseases is to be ascribed.

Infective Progress.

The infective process is itself the stimulus that excites the bodily tissues to the production of the anti-toxine and so soon as it has been produced in sufficient quantity the further growth of the invasive bacteria ceases. They perish and are eliminated from the body. For this reason many infective diseases are said to be self-limited. So long as the increased production of the anti-toxin continues after such an experience the body is protected against a return of the disease, through the establishment of what may be termed acquired immunity.

But if as sometimes happens the tissues cease to furnish the required anti-toxin, re-infection again becomes possible. In this way may be explained the immunity that is acquired through an attack of small pox, scarlet fever, typhoid fever, etc., and also the occasional recurrence of these diseases in the same individual. To illustrate the theory of toxins and anti-toxins we will briefly review the history of the modern treatment of diphtheria, a disease whose bacteriology and treatment has been worked out along the lines just mentioned.

Discovery at Pasteur Institute.

The students in the Pasteur institute discovered that in the blood of horses that had suffered from an attack of diphtheria a new substance was found that is their blood differed in composition from the blood of horses that had never suffered from this disease. Acting upon the theory that this new substance was nature's product, produced to limit and destroy the growth of the diphtheria bacilli; it was separated from the blood of a recovered horse and injected into the body of a horse suffering from diphtheria, and true to their expectations the diphtheria bacilli and then toxins engaged in the production of the disease were overcome by this pronounced and sudden reinforcement of nature and at once succumbed and prompt recovery from the disease followed. To illustrate the modern treatment of a case of diphtheria let A represent the maximum bodily resistance. Let 2A represent the destroying power of a severe diphtheritic infection. It is apparent with such a condition death would ensue. However when 2A of refined diphtheritic anti-toxin is added to 1A resisting power already present, the ratio is changed and we have a resisting force of 3A against an invading force of 2A and recovery takes place.

A more or less complete loss of susceptibility to a contagion through the use of vaccines or sera is termed artificial immunity.

Artificial immunity may be produced by intentional infection with a similar disease from which there is slight or no danger to others from infection for instance (vaccines), cowpox against (variola) smallpox or by the injection of anti-toxic sera as in diphtheria and tetanus (lockjaw) or by specially treated bacteria as in hydrophobia and typhoid fever.

As to the value of artificial immunity we have but to review the pre-vaccination history of small-pox when millions died from this disease, and then to observe the modern management of an epidemic of this disease. Also in the management of diphtheria where those exposed are immunized at once by the use of anti-toxin.

Vaccination Against Typhoid Fever.
The most recent triumph is the vaccination against typhoid fever; and as in hydrophobia this is done by specially treated bacteria. We have to but compare the results in the recent mobilization of troops at San Antonio where all were vaccinated against typhoid and only one or two mild cases developed, and the unfortunate state of affairs at Chickamauga during the Spanish-American war where typhoid existed in epidemic form. It was of interest also to notice that as soon as cholera appeared among the Balkan allies they at once called the leading medical authorities of Europe to take charge of the epidemic.

The duty of a physician in such diseases is that of an advisor, realizing their infectious nature and that recovery occurs through the establishment of immunity; by his education and experience he seeks to guide the patient through an attack of the disease and also to protect those from infection who are susceptible to the disease.

From this class of diseases were considered—Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles, German measles, whooping cough, mumps, small pox, chicken pox, typhoid fever, acute articular rheumatism and its relation to sore throat and acute chorea, infantile paralysis, cerebro spinal meningitis and hydrophobia.
